The desert is never empty.

In Timimoun, the red oasis of the Gourara, the desert is a living land. During your stay, a guide brings it to life for you.

The ksour

Centuries of history in red earth, visited with a guide.

The palm groves

The shade of the djnane gardens, the water of the foggaras.

The red town

Earth architecture found nowhere else in the Sahara.

A living culture

Crafts, music and tea shared with the people of the oasis.

Guided visits and desert outings are included in the signature stay (page 6).

Why Ahellil?

Ahellil is the collective song of the Zenata of the Gourara, inscribed by UNESCO in 2008 as Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity. A song of sharing and passing on: that is the spirit of the place.

"I thought I was coming for a short stay. I did not know yet that I would find another way of seeing things."

FOUNDER OF AHELLIL.
